"MONEY IS ESSENTIAL IN OUR LIVES"

Nowadays, we live in a consumer society, what means that we are buying something at every moment. I personally think that money is essential in our lives.

First of all, one of the reasons is that, as it has been said, we use money every day in order to buy things which we don't need, but we buy them. Nevertheless, we really need money because, without it, we can't live an ordinary life, it's impossible. The problem is that, even when we are overdrawn, we still splash out.

Finally, another reason is that money was created to improve economic exchanges. If money didn't exist, our world would be even less fair.

To sum up, in my opinion, money has become our main objective in our lives, what is sad but it's also true. I wish money didn't exist, but that would make our world more complicated.
